Plaintiffs,

v.

AETNA LIFE INSURANCE,

Defendant.

Now before the Court is the parties' stipulation of dismissal with prejudice of named plaintiffs Brenda R. and Brandon R.. ECF No. 122 ("Stip"). For the reasons provided below, the parties'

1 stipulation is DENIED.

2 Parties' stipulation states that "Plaintiffs' counsel have 3 been unable to contact Brenda R. and Brandon R. for many months and 4 have notified them via email and first-class U.S. mail that unless 5 they contact counsel their action against Defendant Aetna Life
6 Insurance Company . . . will be dismissed." Stip. at 1. The 7 parties cite Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a)(1)(A)(ii), which 8 states that voluntary dismissal can be achieved without a court
9 order upon a stipulation of dismissal signed by all parties who 10 have appeared. Brenda R. and Brandon R., however, have not 11 stipulated to their dismissal. If they fail to respond to 12 Defendant's discovery requests, Defendant may file a motion for the 13 sanction of dismissal pursuant to Rule 37.

15 IT IS SO ORDERED.
